

Karen DeMauro

The Acting Center

Science and Nature Resume

KAREN DE MAURO

421 West 24th Street, #5D
New York, NY 10011

kdemauro@infohouse.com

www.karendemauro.com

Phone/Fax: 212-675-6944

CAREER RESUME HIGHLIGHTS

THE INTREPID SCIENCE MUSEUM, NEW YORK CITY, FALL 2001

Created and Performed "Water, Waves, and Mysteries" for The Annual Family Festival.

THE UNITED NATIONS, NEW YORK CITY

Directed and Adapted Phyllis Chesler's "About Men," an environmental and political collage.

SOUTH CAROLINA AUDUBON SOCIETY, SPRING 2002

Conducted "Nature Awareness" workshops focused on the Beidler Forest/Four Holes Swamp Area.

THE SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION, FOR ST. MARY'S CITY, MARYLAND

Directed "Living History," a reenactment of early colonial life at St. Mary's City, with a cast of thirty professionals and twenty residents on five simultaneous stages. Broadcast special on ABC.

ARTPARK, LEWISTON, NEW YORK, THROUGHOUT 1980's AND 1990's

Performed "Nature Myths and Marvels" on multiple outdoor stages.

FRIENDS OF THE ARTS, HUNTINGTON, NEW YORK

Conducted "Participatory Storytelling" for Arbor Day Celebration.

BETHANY RETREAT CENTER, NEW YORK, 1998 -1998

Led workshops on "Nature's Book of Hours" for clergy and lay people.

YASAKA JINJA, KYOTO, JAPAN, THROUGHOUT 1980's

Performed traditional Noh plays about Nature at Outdoor Shrines for the Japan Foundation.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND, GUEST LECTURER

Conducted "Medicine and the Arts" with Dr. Ed McCarthy of Johns Hopkins.

WORK IN SCHOOL DISTRICTS FROM 1970 - 2002

Created over 70 original musicals with Broadway Musical Director, Steven M. Alper. Sample shows:

"The Hudson River Wonderquest," Bedford, New York

Collaborated with "The Owl's Journey" Author, Maura Shaw.

"Rachel Carson and Harbor Habitats," Pt. Jefferson, New York

Collaboration with DEP and local waterworks employees.

"Pilgrimage," Schenectady Public Schools, New York

Collaboration with Composer, Julie Kabat.

"The Wizards of the Wild," Providence, Rhode Island

Collaborated with Storytellers, Len Cabral and Marilyn Meardon.

"A Natural History of the Midwest," Salt Lake City, Utah

Sponsored by the Utah Arts Council.

"While We Are Here - A Tribute to Edwin May Teale," Briarcliff Manor, New York

Inspired by the staff at Trailwoods Nature Sanctuary, Connecticut.

"The Amazing Einstein," Theatreworks USA

Created Workshops and Trained Touring Company.

"Fish-Shaped Paumanok - Native Visions and Voices," New Hyde Park, New York

RELATED WORKSHOPS WITH

David Abrams, Author

Richard Lewis, Author

Gerrold Mundis, Author

Stephen R. Kellert, Author

Dr. Ed McCarthy, Author

David Winkler, Composer

Yitzak Buxbaum, Storyteller

Jean-Claude van Itallie, PW

GRANTS AND AWARDS

Mobil Economics Award, 2nd

NY Foundation for the Arts

Geraldine R. Dodge Foundation

American Cancer Society

SPONSORS

Marble Collegiate Church

The New School

The Juilliard School

Zen Mountain Monastery

The New York Open Center

Surdna Writers' Foundation

NY State Council of the Arts

Asian Cultural Council

TV AND PRINT MEDIA

Storytelling Magazine Profile

CNN-TV-"The War Show"

CNBC-"The Money Club"