

THE ACTING CENTER

Programs & Practices for the Actor in Everyone

2009 INTERACTIVE PROGRAMS THRIVE WITH "CARSON'S SENSE OF WONDER"

FROM HERRICKS TO NYC "CREATING AN ORIGINAL MUSICAL" WORKSHOPS CONTINUE

NEW AND RETURNING FALL PROGRAMS

Returning School Districts such as Sachem, Rye, Herricks and Freeport allow art in schools to thrive. Thank you! This year's offerings include:

- Presentation Skills
- Creative Drama Workshops
- Creating an Original Musical
- Medieval Grail Quest Journey
- Rachel Carson's Sense of Wonder
- Multicultural Interactive Storytelling
- Mythic Stories From Egypt and Greece

NEW

The Nature of New York and Long Island
Teacher Training Workshops in Creative Drama

Call: 212-675-6944 for information.

OR

E-mail: karendemauro@earthlink.net to receive pdf. info sheet on the program of your choice.

All programs approved by BOCES and meet New York State Education Standards

NATURESTAGES SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS

Children across the Northeast continue to revel in "Rachel Carson's Sense of Wonder" The audience participation family musical draws enthusiastic responses from cast and audience alike. Creator Karen De Mauro was honored with an Artist-in-Residence Award at Acadia National Park last season and continues to joined park interpreters in explorations of how to use drama and performing arts to enhance nature education. The joyful engagement that comes from live theatre generates a natural affection, one that encourages participants to preserve and care for the natural world. With music by Broadway musical director Steven M. Alper.

This year Karen was selected to join the International 2009 Orion Magazine Writing Workshop at Wildbranch.

SPECIAL CONGRATULATIONS TO:
Surge Worldwide Healthcare
For their huge new business win. Great Job!

ONGOING PROGRAMS

Haiku Hut (Currently in Sea Cliff, NY)
Acting as a Way (For Broadway Actors)
Healthcare and Finance Corporate Consulting
Advanced Preaching Skills Sept./Feb. Session
Presentation Skills Corporate Sr. Management